

Randy Leffler, Partner
Select Association Management

Randy has more than 18 years of combined association, communications and public policy advocacy experience, coupled with extensive event, project, personnel and budgetary management expertise. In his role with Select Association Management, he serves as Executive Director for the Ohio Association of Ambulatory Surgery Centers.

Prior to co-founding Select Association Management, Randy served for 8½ years as the managing director of communications services for The Ohio Manufacturers' Association (OMA), one of Ohio's most prominent business trade associations. During his tenure, he was elected as Secretary of the OMA Board of Directors and served on the association's senior management team. He managed all aspects of the organization's overall communications, public relations and associate member relations programs including strategic planning, government advocacy communications, events management and member recruitment and retention.

Additionally, Randy held senior management positions with the Ohio Department of Aging. He also served on legislative staffs in the Ohio House of Representatives and the U.S. House of Representatives.

Randy holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from The Ohio State University.
